testimonials

“Chipo inspires with her genuine, charismatic attitude and energy while teaching her empowering principles of ‘self-healing of inner conflict’! Chipo masterfully intertwines her programs with your business or personal culture.”

“Chipo Shambare is among the most rare and gifted healers I have ever encountered in my career. She is a natural at the art of healing, a person who has a Sacred Contract to be of service to others in this lifetime. Her own life has been a journey of silent and private struggles that have given strength and integrity to her soul, her mind, and her heart. She has never failed to choose the path of wisdom for herself, no matter the obstacle. In this personal spiritual discipline, she is a role model for all. She is also one of the finest human beings, blessed with a deeply compassionate and intuitive soul. She loves easily and with grace. Those who know her are blessed because she is a congruent soul, her heart and her mind and her spirit are one and the same force. During our years together as student and teacher, I have observed her dedication to the healing arts grow with passion never wavering. She is a solid professional as well as a blessed soul - the perfect Healer’s alchemy.”

“I have worked with Chipo Shambare for over 14 years now and would like to offer my support by sharing with you my personal experience while on the journey with her. Presently I am conducting four choirs and teaching voice as part of my duties as a tenured professor at the University of Ottawa. I have a very full life, which keeps me on the go from morning to night most days of the week.

I first met Chipo in 1991 as a valued member of the alto section in the University of Ottawa Choir. At that point in my life I was constantly ill and run down. She was very observant and offered to assist me by convincing me of the benefits of her coaching through massage. After our first sessions I realized that this experience offered more than I had expected. I have not turned back and continue to have weekly touch ups when I am available.

She has always provided a safe forum for me to delve into issues, some buried deep in childhood experiences, where I was able to release “old baggage” in order to heal. She has offered numerous courses, workshops and seminars which I have attended. She has opened my horizons by challenging my beliefs and sharing her own personal discoveries. She has been an amazingly supportive healing coach who has made herself available both physically and spiritually, she is also a valued and loyal friend. She follows the highest of professional standards. Her rapport with clients is professional, supportive and honest. She is not one to mince her words and really tells it like it is, which can be very challenging at times through the challenging line of questions asked. She keeps a progress chart that is monitored at each session, observing changes and offering a variety of goals toward change and healing.

Chipo has been my lifeline over these many years. I am eternally grateful for all that she has done for, and with me. I feel she is a wonderful healing counselor/coach who is so totally dedicated to the process of aiding and coaching fellow humans on their life’s path.”
